

As a resident of the Corvallis, Oregon community, K-Love serves me with the most encouraging, uplifting radio programming that I have ever found to listen to in this area. I know many people that would miss this wholesome family friendly programming if it weren't available. I believe that the loss of this radio station would have a negative impact on my community and I would definitely miss this valuable, positive programming in my daily life.